

5TH ANNUAL HUDSON COUNTY INTERFAITH MEMORIAL SERVICE

Thursday, December 19 at 1:00 p.m.
Old Bergen Church
One Highland Avenue, Jersey City, NJ

We invite you to participate:

- Forward names of deceased homeless individuals
- Run a “drive” to collect new thermal socks, hats, scarves, gloves, toiletries and items for bagged meals (juice boxes, fruit, snack foods, zip close sandwich bags, paper lunch bags, etc.) to be distributed to the homeless
- Volunteer on Dec. 19 to help make and distribute gift bags, sandwiches, bagged meals, serving at the reception and cleaning up (9am-3:30pm)
- Bake and bring cookies for the reception
- Spread the Word, via FaceBook, Twitter, email, etc.!

To find out how to participate or for more information, email
volunteer@gsecdc.org or call 201-668-0546

REMEMBER THOSE WHO DIED FROM CAUSES RELATED TO HOMELESSNESS, RAISE AWARENESS ABOUT PEOPLE STILL LIVING AND DYING ON THE STREETS, ASSIST THE SURVIVORS.

National Homeless Memorial Day commemorates the First Day of Winter and Longest Night of the Year, and the start of another long, cold painful season for the Homeless. A coalition led by Garden State Episcopal Community Development Corporation will hold Hudson County's Fifth Annual Homeless Persons' Memorial Day commemoration, an Inter-Faith Service to include remembrances of homeless neighbors, friends & loved ones who have passed away, lost to the streets.
